

Sandra Szwarcberg

sandras1@013.net

Objectives:

Teaching English as a foreign language (EFL), English for Specific Purposes (ESP), college reading comprehension skills, program and syllabus design, materials development, course planning and immersion and crash programs for professionals.

Education:

- ❖ M.A. in Education -TESOL(Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages). University of London, Institute of Education, 1997.
- ❖ B.A. in English Literature. Tel-Aviv University, 1988.
- ❖ Teaching Certificate. Levinsky Teacher's College, 1990.

Special Courses:

- Librarian, 1987.
- Integration of Computers in the English Language Classroom. Open University, 1996.
- Computer Counselor. Open University, 1996.
- Workshops on advanced CLT techniques, group and pair work in the adult foreign language classroom, Open University.
- Workshops on teaching reading comprehension strategies, Open University .
- Expert in Remedial Teaching in English. Nitzan Organization, 2017
- EMI (English as a Medium of Instruction), Cambridge English, 2022.

Work Experience:

1997 – present

Holon Institute of Technology (HIT), Holon.

- * Lecturer in reading comprehension and developer of materials for all levels of college academic studies, especially the advanced level, working towards an exemption in English.
- * Lecturer in reading comprehension and materials developer for the pre-academic courses.

2015- 2020

Holon Institute of Technology (HIT), Holon.

* Assistant to the head of the English Unit. Work includes material development, exam writing, development of programs to encourage learning, addressing students with special needs and students in general. The work entails ensuring the smooth running of the department both within the English unit and with the other departments as well.